

Leaders in Aerosol Research and Custom Aerosol Packaging

March 31, 2022

Dear Chase Customer,

We continue to receive some very significant increases on chemical raw materials such as our insecticide active ingredients, silicones, adhesives and other petroleum-based solvents. These raw material increases range from 40% to 300%. Most of these chemicals are also in very short supply in the global market, so we continue to source where we can on the spot market to ensure we have the much-needed product for our customers.

Chase has focused on certain SKUs that are most affected. Below is a list of the SKUs we are forced to increase. Each SKU will have its own percentage of price increase. These percentages will range anywhere from 5% to 30% depending on the item.
