January 2026

Dear Valued Customer,

At SC Johnson Professional, we remain dedicated to enhancing our processes so you receive the highest level of quality and satisfaction when purchasing and using our products. As a valued customer, we want to make you aware of some upcoming updates to our pricing structure.

Effective May 1, 2026, there will be price changes for the overall SC Johnson Professional and healthcare portfolio.

An updated price list with individual item details will be made available and your SC Johnson Professional sales representative can provide further information on specifics and answer any questions you might have about optimizing future orders as these changes take effect.

On behalf of the entire SC Johnson Professional team, thank you for your continued patronage and partnership.

Sincerely,
